

STONE SOUP for the 21st Century 2013

Best Practices in Education

Saturday, March 23 - 9:00am to 4:00pm

100's of resources under one roof

Free VITA
Tax Prep

FREE

STONE SOUP
For the 21st Century

Best Practices in Education

Translation &
Childcare (3+)

Morning

- Light Breakfast
- Speakers
- Workshops
- See back for details & registration info

Afternoon

- Resource Midway
- Live performances
- Demonstrations
- Prizes
- Lunch (soup of course!)

For information visit us at

www.  StamfordAsks.org
A Website for Stamford

and click on Stone Soup!

Questions? Call Eva Weller at 203-329-0452

AITE

411 High Ridge Road, Stamford

Morning speakers in the Rippowam Auditorium across the parking lot at 381 High Ridge Road

Community
Partners

DOMUS
LOVE LIVES HERE

STONE SOUP for the 21st Century 2013

Best Practices in Education

MORNING SPEAKERS

8:00a.m. Doors open to register for morning sessions. A light breakfast will be served.

9:00a.m. Keynotes

- * Goodbye No Child Left Behind, Hello Common Core: Bringing Change to Your Child's Classroom. Kelli Wells GE Foundation Director of U.S. Education
- * Beyond Bullying: Creating Climates of Respect to Support Student Success. Jo Ann Freiberg, Ph.D. National expert on school climate & consultant to CT State Dept. of Ed.
- * GUEST PRESENTER: The RULER Approach to Social and Emotional Learning: the five key skills. Marc Brackett, Ph.D. Director of the Yale Center for Emotional Intelligence

STONE SOUP for the 21st Century is the result of a multi-year Community Conversation led by members of the Parent Leadership's Training Institute Alumni Association.

MORNING WORKSHOPS

Session A 10:15a.m. to 11:00a.m. Bringing Change to Your Child's Classroom

- 1A Creating Socially & Emotionally Intelligent Schools
- 2A Creating Safe & Positive School Climates to Eliminate Bullying
- 3A Bringing Change to Your Child's classroom: Elementary School Math & English Language Arts
- 4A Bringing Change to Your Child's Classroom: Secondary School Math and English Language Arts
- 5A Accessing the Resources in Your Child's School: AVID, Naviance & Afterschool Programs
- 6A Trayendo Cambios al Salón del Estudiante
- 7A Bringing Change to Your Child's Classroom for English Language Learners
- 8A How to Conduct a Student-led Community Conversation

Session B 11:15a.m. to 12:00p.m. Creating Climates of Respect

- 1B Creating Socially & Emotionally Intelligent Schools
- 2B Creating Safe & Positive School Climates to Eliminate Bullying
- 3B Edmodo: Social Media for Educators, Parents & Students
- 4B How to Host a Community Conversation on Climate in Your School
- 5B Engaging Families & Schools
- 6B A Conversation with Students About School Climate
- 7B Inclusive Schools (Abilis & SCOPES)

Modeled after the STONE SOUP tale about travelers & villagers who bring their own ingredients to create a nourishing soup for all; STONE SOUP for the 21st Century brings Stamford communities together to share best practices in education. STONE SOUP enables participants to act on their own behalf by providing resources & training.

REGISTRATION: register online, by phone or mail to Stamford Public Schools 3rd Floor. Stamford Government Center, 888 Washington Blvd., 06901

Name _____
 Telephone _____ Zip _____
 Email _____
 Child(rens) School(s) _____
 Services Needed: Yes ___ No ___ Childcare (3 years & up)
 No. of children & ages _____
 Translation Spanish Other _____

WORKSHOP SELECTION

Select your first & second choice from each session.
 You will receive confirmation at the event.
 For a full description & to register, please visit
www.StamfordAsks.org
 10:15-11:00 Session A _____ Session A _____
 11:15-12:00 Session B _____ Session B _____
 For information & to register call: (203) 977-0800